

Wisdom Wednesdays

During this 2 hour event, and every second Wednesday, we will discuss and I will offer my coaching and guidance on any topic you bring to the conversation that I can speak to and/or have experience with...

Including:

- Leading edge health tips, products and practices
- Best practices for a vibrant, strong, and healthy body
- The mind, energy, the law of attraction,
- Energy
- The law of attraction
- Spirituality
- The ego
- Consciousness
- Creating abundance
- Personal transformation
- Developing greater romance
- What is love really?
- How to truly bring about peace in the world
- The supernatural
- Developing psychic and intuitive abilities
- Metaphysics
- and more

We will also discuss:

- Earth changes
- 2012
- Letting go
- If there is anything that we need to do for 2012

This is meant to be supportive, respectful, and a way to encourage greater growth and learning for everyone involved.

This is the perfect opportunity to find out more if you have heard about my work, and wish to share it with friends, colleagues, family and/or want to sample it, gain insight and clarity, meet others of like mind and have your questions answered.

This is an open format session and there is no marketing or gathering for the purpose of promotion in any way. One exception is a book that I sell that I don't profit on that is not available in bookstores and is my Number 1 book that I have read and share with clients and friends.

If this is your first time attending, it is free. When you attend subsequent Wisdom Wednesdays, as many do, it is an affordable and insignificant $20.00 in the context of what you will gain.

I hope to see you there!

Warmly,
Joshua Zuchter
